Attendees Wowed at GROWinNJ Economic Development Forum

Close to 100 Participants joined to hear about the advantages of doing business in New Jersey and about the many incentives and benefits available for NJ businesses that most are unaware of. Many of the attendees came from businesses currently outside of NJ, especially NY, where growth options are more limited, and are seriously speculating a move to NJ in the near future. "The great state of NJ has a lot to offer businesses of all types, sizes and industries. Logistically it's tough to find a better place than NJ." Event Chairman, Maksim Sheyn, Senior Vice President at Investors Bank, stated. The forum was comprehensive and information-packed for businesses expanding in or moving to NJ with each speaker addressing a different angle.

NJJBA Assisting Out of State Businesses Relocating to NJ

The NJJBA team is currently offering guidance and assistance to businesses who are looking to move to NJ. Several out of state business who have already been guided and introduced to key resources and ideas, voiced their concern regarding lack of guidance and suggested NJJBA step in to fill this role. At the Economic Development Forum, David Rosenberg, Founder and Executive Director of the Alliance, announced "The Alliance will now also assist out-of-state businesses when choosing NJ. We have a wonderful team and many resources in place for your business to ease the process." The announcement excited business considering NJ.

2018 Alliance Directory Issued

The Directory, which is the third membership annual phone book, now lists of over 150 member businesses. As in the previous years, the directory also includes an updated communal guide of important information, Mincha services and Kosher food locations among others. This years guide has information for more locations this year, reflecting the Alliance expansion.

Wishing all of our members a Chag Pesach Sameach!
