

NJJBA QUARTERLY UPDATE

Across the last quarter, NJJBA organized several events to support and advocate for its member businesses. The Family Owned Business Forum, Mission to D.C. and Meet & Greet with assemblyman Clinton Calabrese are some of the highlights. We would like to extend a thank you to our members for their dedication to NJJBA and its mission.

THE HIGHLIGHTS

- 01 FAMILY OWNED BUSINESS FORUM
- 02 MEET N GREET WITH ASSEMBLYMAN CLINTON CALABRESE
- 03 MISSION TO D.C.
- 04 SAVE THE DATE: LEGISLATIVE & BUSINESS LUNCHEON

FAMILY OWNED BUSINESS FORUM

A panel of industry leading experts addressed attendees at the Family Owned Business Forum held in Saint Peter’s University, Jersey City, NJ in March.

As family-owned businesses face more threats than ever, the assembled participants were guided through the intricacies of successfully owning and operating family businesses. Key aspects of the discussion expounded on developing a sound corporate structure, the best ways to transfer ownership of a business between generations, how to plan estates from a business perspective, and how to weigh the options when considering an exit strategy.

MEET & GREET WITH ASSEMBLYMAN CLINTON CALABRESE

Members of the alliance had an accomplishing day at our Meet & Greet event with Assemblyman Clinton Calabrese. This was an excellent opportunity for businesses from the 36th Legislative District to get to know their representative in Trenton and discuss the challenges facing their businesses and communities.

At this point we would like to thank Mike Worldwide for hosting the meeting.

MISSION TO D.C.

On their mission to D.C. New Jersey Jewish Business Alliance members met with senior officials at the Department of Commerce, Senator Cory Booker and Representatives Malinowski, Smith, Kim, and Gottheimer to advocate for New Jersey businesses.

Participants shared the impact of the economical climate on businesses and the altered approaches they were forced to take. Proposed solutions and initiatives were well received by the dignitaries who promised to work on the concerns raised.

The NJJBA once again succeeded in making an impact on our representatives in D.C.

Annual Legislative & Business Luncheon: Save the Date

The 8th Annual Legislative & Business Luncheon is scheduled for August 16th, 2022. The Robert Treat Hotel will once again be hosting the luncheon.

In addition to providing an opportunity to network, and forge relationships with our elected officials, this year's Corporate Excellence Award will be presented to The KRE Group.

We look forward to honoring Ted Zangari Esq. in recognition of his dedicated work.

NJJBA welcomes its new members:
